And generally to transact at the custom houses in any district any and all customs business, including making, signing, and filing of protests under section 514 of the Tariff Act of 1930, in which said grantor is or may be concerned or interested and which may properly be transacted or performed by an agent and attorney, giving to said agent and attorney full power and authority to do anything whatever requisite and necessary to be done in the premises as fully as said grantor could do if present and acting, hereby ratifying and confirming all that the said agent and attorney shall lawfully do by virtue of these presents;

This power of attorney to remain in full force and effect until notice of revocation in writing is duly given to and received by a Port Director of Customs. If the donor of this power of attorney is a partnership, the said power shall in no case have any force or effect after the expiration of 2 years from the date of execution. Appointment as Forwarding Agent: Grantor authorizes the above grantee to act within the territory as lawful agent and sign and endorse export documents (i.e. commercial invoices, bills of lading, insurance certificated, drafts and any other document) necessary for the completion of export on grantor's behalf as may be required under law and regulation in the territory and to appoint forwarding agent's on grantor's behalf:

Grantor waives the confidentiality requirements of CFR 19, part 111.24 and the requirement in CFR 19 111.36 that the Customs Broker transmit a copy of its bill for service directly to the importer and authorizes the Customs Broker to transmit its bill for services and copies of the Customs entry documents and all file documents through to grantors forwarder or third parties. No part of this agreement forbids or prevents the direct communication between the importer or other party in interest and the Customs Broker. Per CFR 19 Part 111.29(b), If you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for customs charges in the event the charges are not paid by the broker. Therefore, if you pay by check, customs charges may be paid with a separate check payable to "U.S. Customs Border and Protection" which shall be delivered to Customs by the broker. Importers who wish to utilize this procedure must contact our office to arrange timely receipt of any checks.
